

Dear Friends,

We at Children's Book World are thinking of all of you and your children, many of you trying to implement school at home. Not easy, we know! We want to help by sharing some information.

We've been hearing from many authors and illustrators who are stepping up to help our children while schools are closed. The authors and illustrators are offering daily or weekly read-alouds, discussions about their books, art lessons, presentations about writing, and some are offering live-time question and answer sessions.

We want to make sure you hear about all that's being offered. To that end, we'll send emails like this {and post a list on our website and our social media} of the amazing author offerings we hear about.

Feel free to share this information with anyone who might benefit from it.

Stay healthy and keep reading!
